Whose perseverance and determination have won our unbounded respect, whose indefatigability has excited our admiration, whose sternness has been seasoned with just the right degree of playful comradeship — in appreciation of his faithful service to Bryan and Bryan students, and especially to us, the Class of '38, we dedicate this volume.

CLASSES

SENIOR CLASS

Mary Elizabeth Moore, B.A.
President
Dayton, Tenn.

Elizabeth entered Bryan in the year 1934 as a very shy and timid freshman. Rarely heard from, when she did speak something worth-while was said. In her Sophomore year her talents were revealed and were put into use from then on by both faculty and class. Not only is Elizabeth an artist, but she has a voice of gladness and a smile for everybody. She is a girl worth knowing!

SENIOR CLASS

Mary Jane McPherson, B.A.
Vice-President
Dayton, Tenn.

Our class was very fortunate in having Mary join us in 1935 as a Sophomore. From the beginning of our acquaintance with Mary she had proved to be a girl of outstanding character and originality. Her most outstanding characteristic is blonde hair, for which all the Pennsylvanians seem to fall, plus her southern accent. She is one "blonde" who has proved her integrity and worth here at Bryan.

SENIOR CLASS

Jesse W. Lasley, B.A.
Secretary-Treasurer
Soddy, Tenn.

Here comes that man! What man? Why Jesse, the ladies' man—that fellow that has a way with women. Perhaps it is Southern Chivalry, or maybe just good old "horse" sense. Then, possibly it is that red hair. Any way you look at it, Jesse is a fine, gallant, and very able young man. Four years' association has revealed the traits of a real character.

SENIOR CLASS

William J. Daugherty, B.A.
Edmon, Penna.

Bill Daugherty, of Pennsylvania, is a person of unusual ability. Very good natured and always tolerant of other people, he loves the Lord devotedly and strives to glorify Him in his every-day life. Since coming to school here he has worked faithfully in all the organizations for the spreading of the Gospel. He has been especially active in the Ministerial Association and in the street meetings. Bill, like all of us, has his failings, but "to err is human—to forgive is divine."

SENIOR CLASS

Rebecca Barr Haeger, B.A.
Miami, Fla.

Rebecca little realized what thrilling experiences awaited her, besides her successful school career, when she entered the doors of William Jennings Bryan University in September, 1934. She immediately won the love of her fellow-students and took her place in the office as secretary to the Dean.

Here at Bryan Rebecca learned what life really is—for she passed from death into life eternal by believing in the Lord Jesus Christ. This was not her only change of heart, for she found that a certain young man could make the heart beat faster.

The secret is out—after her graduation in June, her future destination is China, and—

SENIOR CLASS

D. Lewis Llewellyn, B.A.
Freeport, Pa.

From Pennsylvania came one who has proved his ability in a number of fields and who has taken his part in the various activities of school life.

He has been faithful in the tasks that have been his to perform. His efforts in behalf of NEWSETTE and other school publications speak for themselves.

There pass in memory's review Lewis—leading the singing, taking active part in the Lord's work, debating, laboring in the print shop, hiking, taking forever to eat, and getting in his sleep quota.

It has been a pleasure to be associated with him who has been a friend to all.

SENIOR CLASS

Anne Graves Walton, B.A.
Clinton, Miss.

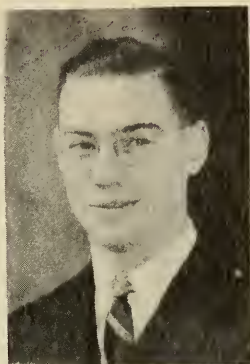

From 'way down in Mississippi Anne came to join the Senior ranks just before the second quarter. It has been discovered that under her reserve she is an interesting and attractive person. In the different school activities she has proved herself to be cooperative and helpful. Devoted faithfully to her is Rex, her dog, who can hardly let her out of his sight.

The great expectation for Anne is that her career as a secretary will lead her into the fascinating field of international correspondence.

GEORGE E. GUILLE MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The Lord has graciously enabled the Ministerial Association of 1937-38 to continue the Christian extension work and has opened new fields of service in Dayton and the surrounding communities.

The Saturday street meetings, changed from evening to afternoon services, have been well attended—the record service having about two hundred present. Many tracts were distributed at the street meetings and in personal visitations.

Chapel services on Monday mornings were conducted by the ministerial students. The messages, consisting of studies of the books of the Bible beginning with Genesis, were found to be very profitable. The Association met regularly on Tuesday evenings, Miss Lyster often speaking to the group on methods of teaching and giving messages.

THE GOSPEL GIVERS

Every Sunday morning, afternoon, and evening, groups of students and faculty members went out to the thirteen regular fields of service. Weekly prayer services were held in many of these places, and personal visitations were made throughout the week.

The Child Evangelism Fellowship, organized this year, was richly rewarded with children accepting the Saviour.

Saturday evening services were held in the City Gospel Hall, directed by one of the ministerial students. The Bible messages were sometimes given with interesting picture slides.

UNIVERSITY SEXTET

Bearing the scarlet and gold of the University, but first and foremost the Gospel of a living Christ, the University Sextet entered many open doors of service throughout the past year. From Athens, 'way down South in Georgia, to the distant shores of Lake Michigan their calls for a ministry of music have come. Athens, Trion, and Atlanta, Georgia; Dayton, Spring City, Rockwood, and Chattanooga, Tennessee; Evansville and Whiting, Indiana; Chicago and Peoria, Illinois; Waterloo, Iowa; and St. Louis, Missouri—all have played host to the University Sextet. During the summer months it is quite probable that Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and other states will receive visits.

THE MIXED QUARTET

Rather late in the year came the organization of the University Mixed Quartet, too late, in fact, for any but a very brief period of service. Athens and Atlanta, Georgia, local churches, and the mission on Signal Mountain, Chattanooga, opened doors to their ministry, hearing in return the old, old story of the Cross.

The Male Quartet was organized in the fall for training in Gospel singing and to work in cooperation with extension activities of the University. Musical programs have been given in Trion, Georgia, in the local churches, and in various Sunday School points served by the Gospel Givers.

The Trio was organized in January for the joy and pleasure of singing praises to the Lord and of giving the Gospel in song. Their singing in the local churches and on the Northern Tour has been much enjoyed.

THE STUDENT FOREIGN MISSION FELLOWSHIP

The increased interest of certain students in missionary activity led them this year to join the National Student F. M. F. The group meets every Monday evening at Cedar Hill for a time of prayer and fellowship with special regard to the problems of those on foreign fields. Each week the problems of a specific field are brought through a message from the member interested in that field.

The membership is composed of those who plan to devote their lives to Foreign Missionary work or who are vitally interested in Foreign Missions.

The NEWSLETTE

March Annual Staff

THE NEWSLETTE AND VACUUM CLEANER STAFFS

The NEWSLETTE, official organ of the University, has been also an outlet for the literary ability of the students who have been engaged in writing the news of students and University.

This year, the NEWSLETTE has been printed—a great advance over mimeographing. An added forward step is the printing of NEWSLETTE on Bryan Hill since the March issue.

The Vacuum Cleaner, mimeographed sheet of student news, the publication of which was begun this year, has been most popular among the students. Strictly devoted to the interests of the student body, it has been circulated only on the campus.
